

441—152.5(234) Copyright and patents. The activities and results of contract activity may be published subject to confidentiality requirements. The provider shall furnish a copy of the published material free of charge to the department within ten days of publication.

The department reserves the right to use and duplicate the publication for internal state purposes. In no event shall the department be charged for the use of the copyrighted materials.